

Beach Towns

Legendary Burgers at Redamak's

Celebrating its 35th anniversary this year, New Buffalo's iconic roadside drive-in, Redamak's, cuts and grinds its own meat in-house, creating the thick, juicy "Legend" burger. redamaks.com

Naval History at the Great Lakes Naval Memorial and Museum The true meaning of Memorial Day lives on at this Muskegon museum's Memorial Day Lost Boat Ceremony, May 30. The ceremony honors lost submarines from World War II. glnmm.org

Local Art at Ox-Bow A haven for artists for a century, Saugatuck's Ox-Bow School of Art celebrates its 100th anniversary with summer Friday Night Open Studios—where visitors can view new art and art demonstrations—and at the Summer Benefit Art Auction, July 10. ox-bow.org

Breathtaking Views at Mt. Pisgah Dune Boardwalk Towering more than 150 feet above Lake Michigan in Holland (below), the Mt. Pisgah Dune is now open to the public, thanks to a recently completed boardwalk and stair system. beachtowns.org

Boutique Shopping on Washington Street Who needs a mall when Grand Haven's Washington Street offers blocks of shops selling everything from outdoor gear to high-end shoes and clothing. downtowngrandhaven.com

